

High Point Rules 2012

AAHA High Point Award program is open to all youth members, 18 years or younger, in good standing during the duration of the High Point season. The horse must be registered with the Arabian Horse Registry of America, the Canadian Arabian Horse Registry or the International Arabian Horse Association Half Arabian or Angle Arabian Registry.

Members may enter as many divisions as they want. A fee of $10 per division must accompany the nomination form. A copy of the horse registration papers and Rider/Handler AHA membership card must be included with the initial nomination form/s before a member is eligible for points to be counted. NO POINTS EARNED PRIOR TO SUBMITTAL OF COMPLETED NOMINATION FORM/FEE WILL BE COUNTED.

Points will be tallied based on rider/horse.

Rider/ Handler can show multiple horses in division but must pay per horse to be counted.

Points for multiple horses will not be combined these will count individually.

If during the course of the HP Year a horse is ruled by a veterinarian unable to compete or passes away, with a written letter from the veterinarian a rider may substitute a new horse for the remainder of HP year. Points on the substitute horse will only be counted from the date the HP Chairperson receives the request and documentation. The original horses points will count up to that point.

Points must be submitted on forms provided by AAHA available on the website or from the Points Secretary. Points must be filled out completely or points will not be counted. Print outs from the AHA are also acceptable. You are responsible for sending these in.

Mail nomination forms to the High Point Chairperson, Molly McGraw. Points can be earned from November 2, 2011 through November 1, 2012. Points received after November 5, 2012 will not be counted.

All shows will count for points, regardless of location or type. Shows can be rated (ie. Class A) or non-rated (local/open/community) shows. Points will however, vary between the divisions.

The show secretary must sign your paperwork, unless it is printed from the AHA. The youth members name, show name, date, rating, class, placing, number in class and secretaries name must be on paperwork submitted. Incomplete forms will not be counted.

All records will be available to any member after the announcement of the winners at the Year End Banquet. In the case of a conflict over points an auditor will be appointed by the board who will review the point records. In the event of a tie, the award will be made to the youth that has shown in the class or event with the most entries. We will post points the AAHA Youth page during the year so that you can watch the standings.

There will be an Over All High Point Champion and Reserve from all of the Divisions Combined. These winners will be the Youths with the highest points from all combined horses and divisions.

The more divisions you enter the better your chances of receiving this award.

Awards will be presented at the AAHA Year End Banquet. If you are unable to attend, please contact someone to pick up your award. If you are unable to do so, it will be your responsibility to make arrangements with the High Point Secretary to get your awards. You will be responsible for paying all mailing expenses.

DEADLINE TO ENTER 2012 HP IS APRIL 23, 2012. THERE WILL BE NO EXEPTIONS. Remember only points that will be counted are from the date your entry is submitted.
